

Paul's Thank You Note to the Philippians Philippians 4:10-23

Paul is grateful for the Philippians. He has a strong affection for them. As he's closing out this letter, he thanks them especially for a monetary gift they've sent him.

1. Paul rejoices in their care for him. Philippians 4:10
2. Paul wants the church at Philippi to know he's content with whatever monetary situation he finds himself in. Philippians 4:11-12
3. Paul wants them to know he relies on the strength of Christ. Philippians 4:13
4. Paul reminds and thanks the Philippians for their generosity in the past and present. Philippians 4:14-20
5. Paul, the brethren with him, and all the saints especially from the household of Caesar send their greetings. Philippians 4:21-23