

Jesus Prays to The Father John 17

John chapter 17 is a profound portion of Scripture offering insight into Jesus' intercessory prayers and His relationship with the Father. This chapter concludes Jesus' farewell discourse with His disciples in the Upper Room, immediately preceding His betrayal and crucifixion.

1. Jesus prays for Himself. (verses 1-5)

- a. My hour has come.
- b. Glorify Me as I have glorified You.
- c. That they may know You, Me, and eternal life.
- d. I have done what You asked Me to do.
- e. O Father, glorify Me together with Yourself.

2. Jesus prays for His disciples. (verses 6-19)

- a. Before Jesus prays for His disciples, He shares about how He and His Father have worked together in their lives.
- b. He prays for their unity.
- c. He prays for their joy.
- d. He prays for their protection.
- e. He prays for their sanctification.

3. Jesus prays for all future believers. (verses 20-26)

- a. He prays for our unity.
- b. He prays for us to have the same love that the Father has for the Son.
