

On Palm Sunday Jesus Declared:

Zechariah 9:9 Matthew 16:21; 21:6 – 9

That He had to come to Jerusalem to suffer, die, and be raised the third day.

From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised the third day. Matthew 16:21

That He is the Messiah and King predicted in Zechariah 9:9a

“Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your King is coming to you; He is just and having salvation,...

That He is a humble King.

Lowly and riding on a donkey, A colt, the foal of a donkey. Zechariah 9:9b

That He is worthy to be praised and worshiped. Matthew 21:6 – 9

But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. 7And when you pray, do not use vain repetitions as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their many words. 8“Therefore do not be like them. For your Father knows the things you have need of before you ask Him. 9In this manner, therefore, pray: Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name.

That His hour to die and suffer for the sins of mankind is soon very soon.

When Jesus said, "My hour has not yet come," in the gospel of John 17 times He was referring to the time of His death and the atoning sacrifice that would follow.
