

How We Work Matters

“The Mission”

Colossians 3:17

Our work is the avenue for our mission.

Our mission should you choose to accept....

Our mission begins in the home.

Our mission begins at home with wives submitting to their husbands.

Our mission begins at home with husbands loving their wives.

Our mission begins in the home with children obeying their parents.

Our mission begins in the home with fathers encouraging their children.

Our mission is best displayed when we welcome people into our home.

Our mission that is practiced in the home carries over into the workplace.

Working heartily means to perform with enthusiasm.

Let pleasing the LORD be your ultimate goal.

Working heartily reaps an eternal reward.

That eternal reward begins now when we enter into the Master’s joy.

Those who reject the purposes of God will receive their due.

Gird our mission in prayer.

Wisdom to see that our work is more than the tangible things we accomplish.

Let our words be desirable.
